"Great Eastern"

designed to take 58 foot paddle wheels driven by 1000 HP engines, and a 24 foot propeller turned by a 1,600 HP engine. Six masts could spread 6,500 sq. yds of sail she could carry enough coal for a round trip to Ceylon at 15 knots. She had room for 4,000 passengers or some 10,000 troops. Supposed to be launched Nov 3, 1857. Inclines gave way under 12,000 tons of bare hull. Hydraulic rams burst. Massive chain snapped. Brunel tried again & again for 3 months before she finally floated. Was 6 yrs building: named Brunel's Company. A new company finally got
